1. WHAT ARE COOKIES AND SIMILAR TECHNOLOGIES?

Cookies are small files stored in your browser. Local storage is similar browser storage used by websites. Some laws treat these as comparable for transparency.

2. WHAT THIS SITE USES BY DEFAULT

2.1 Language preference (local storage)

Name: hnj_lang

Purpose: Remember your chosen interface language (EN, RU, ES, DE, FR).

Duration: Until you clear site data in your browser.

Type: Strictly functional - not used for advertising in the default install.

2.2 Cookies in the default install

The stock Hear & No Judge package does not set advertising or analytics cookies.

Your hosting provider or CDN may set technical cookies outside our control - refer to their documentation.

3. IF YOU ADD ANALYTICS OR ADS (SITE OWNER NOTE)

If you install Google Analytics, Meta Pixel, or similar tools, you must update this document and, where required (e.g. EU/UK), show a consent banner before non-essential cookies run. List each tool, provider, purpose, and retention here.

4. HOW TO CONTROL STORAGE

You can delete local storage and cookies in your browser settings. Blocking storage may prevent the language selector from remembering your choice.
